Dear Partners, thank you so much for the prayers.

Jodi's conference for student Nurse Practitioners at Olivet University was exhilarating but also exhausting. They had long days with Jodi not getting back to our friend's home until after 7pm. She was able to meet some of her instructors and fellow students face to face for the first time. She heard many good lectures about the nurse practitioner field and was able to practice some hands-on medical skills.

We did run into snow and icy roads which made the 12hr drive a little longer.

We were thankful for the prayer covering our drive we knew we had. Thank you!!

Progressing on in Georgia,
